COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulæ, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great, blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

ATTACKED BY CONVICTS.

Warden Frank Conley, of the Montana penitentiary, was severely wounded yesterday and Deputy Warden John Robinson was killed by three life convicts, George Rock, W. H. Hayes, and another, who tried to escape prison. Robinson's throat was cut from ear to ear and the jugular vein was severed.

Conley's throat was gashed and he was stabbed several times in the shoulder and groin before he was able to draw his revolver and shoot down Hayes and Rock, who were armed with pocketknives. It is believed that the warden will recover.

The three convicts were taken to the office of the penitentiary by Deputy Warden Robinson, to be tried before Warden Conley for an infraction of the prison rules.

Hayes for several months had been a "trusty," and served as turnkey. He had been placed in the same cell with Rock who had been regarded as a desperate man.

The moment the men entered the office Rock turned swiftly on Robinson, who was closing the door behind the men, and quickly drawing a knife, slashed the deputy warden's throat so deeply that Robinson fell helpless and soon died.

At the same moment that Rock attacked Robinson, Hayes drew a knife and started for Conley, who retreated to the rear of the office. Before he could draw a revolver, Hayes had sprung on the warden and slashed his throat from the left ear to a point under the chin. Conley half eluded the blow and struggled desperately. Hayes, seeing his intended victim getting away, stabbed the warden several times in the shoulder and the groin.

Although bleeding terribly, Conley managed to draw a revolver and fired four times, with the weapon pressed against Hayes' abdomen. As Hayes sank to the floor, Rock rushed at Conley, who fired the remaining bullet into Rock, and the latter fell, helpless.

The third convict took to his heels at the beginning of the throat cutting, but he was quickly captured.

Cause of Stomach Troubles.

When a man has trouble with his stomach you may know that he is eating more than he should or of some article of food or drink not suited to his age or occupation, or that his bowels are habitually constipated. Take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to regulate the bowels and improve the digestion and see if the trouble does not disappear. Ask for a free sample. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

KILLED IN THE COURTROOM.

W. F. Holland and his son, Walter Holland, are both dead, and J. W. Turner, fatally injured as the result of a fight in Justice W. F. Bry's court in Decatur, Ala., Saturday.

Bob and John Turner, sons of J. W. Turner, who were also engaged, in the fight, but who were uninjured, made their escape, but officers are on their trail.

All the parties concerned are prominent country people. The fight grew out of an old family feud. Some years ago W. F. Holland mortgaged some farm lands to Kirk Wallace, of Moulton. Mr. Wallace foreclosed the mortgage and the property was bought by J. W. Turner. Holland remained in possession of the property for sometime after the foreclosure of the mortgage, and bad feeling grew up between the Hollands and the Turners which resulted in many quarrels and fights.

A few days ago the Hollands accused the Turners of cutting their wire fence, and the Turners were arrested. On Saturday they appeared in courts and were acquitted. After the trial, but while they were still in the courtroom, Walter Holland told J. W. Turner he swore to a lie, and drew his revolver from his hip pocket. Turner's sons, Bob and John, rushed toward Walter Holland with drawn knives, and with one blow in the heart Holland fell dead.

Walter Holland's father had rushed to his assistance, and he likewise met death by being stabbed by the Turner boys. J. W. Turner was beaten over the head with a pistol, and will die.

There was a panic in the courtroom, and in the rush for the doors several men and boys were caught in the jam and badly bruised. Officers were unable to stop the fight or prevent the stampede.

On account of his serious condition J. W. Turner has not been placed under arrest, as it is believed he will die.

The Turners are closely related to the Hatfields, the famous feudists of Kentucky.

The Hollands came from a noted family of mountaineers. Each side has sworn not to stop until the last one of the opposing faction is killed.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and allays inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, MAR. 9, 1908.

PRESENTING his views on practical communism as a remedy of existing sociological conditions before the Civic Forum at Carnegie Hall in New York last night, Frederick Van Eeden, the sociologist, poet and founder of the communistic colony in Walden, Holland, declared that common possession of the soil was utterly worthless unless the community to which the soil belonged was well organized. Mr. Van Eeden said:

Private ownership in the hands of a good landlord is eminently preferable to common ownership in the hands of a badly trained and poorly organized community. Organization—strict, powerful, functionating organization—that is the all-commanding condition of communism, and of land-communism in the first place. In an absolutely perfect organization, to which the human race will perhaps adapt itself in a thousand years, the idea of private property or possession will have lost its meaning altogether.

The last sentence in the above may serve to relieve the anxiety of many of the present generation, as, according to Van Eeden, the consummation of his dreams is one thousand years in the future.

THE aggressiveness and impertinence of attaches of some newspapers was never more fully demonstrated than in the procedure of a correspondent of a New York paper who has followed Count and Countess Szechenzi all the way to their Hungarian home for the purpose of describing the baronial home in which the young couple are in future to reside and to contrast the surroundings with those of a Fifth avenue mansion in New York. Fun is poked at the bath tub, and the absence of plumbing, steam heat, &c. The great-grandfather of the young bride passed his early years on a farm on Staten Island amid the humblest surroundings, and probably the Countess Szechenzi will prolong her years in the simple life she will lead in her husband's baronial home, far from the swim of the luxury and dissipations incident to the artificial life of New York millionaires.

A VICTIM of vaccination, a nine-months old girl, died in Philadelphia on Friday night from blood poisoning, which is declared to have been the direct result of her inoculation with the vaccine virus three weeks ago. Before she was vaccinated the baby was strong and healthy, but two days after the operation sores broke out in various parts of the body and the doctor who was called in and who treated her up until the time of her death, said that the blood poisoning was caused entirely by vaccination. The matter has been brought to the attention of the secretary of the Anti-Vaccination League, and will be investigated thoroughly. The secretary declared that the case was only one of a hundred, where small children were made the victims of the practice of vaccination. The league is endeavoring to have vaccination entirely abolished.

THERE can be no more striking proof of the effect of the industrial depression upon well-to-do people than the fact that the importations of precious stones (chiefly diamonds), amounting to $7,661,400 in value in the first two months of 1907, have dwindled to $513,899 in the same months of the present year. It should be observed, too, that the prices of precious stones have also declined, in spite of the efforts to maintain them.

STATISTICS compiled by R. G. Dun & Co. show that there were 1621 commercial failures in February, with aggregate liabilities of $27,064,571 against 924 failures and liabilities of $10,283,770, in the same month of last year. The note of encourgement is that the defaulted indebtedness was slightly less than in January. There were also thirteen bank suspensions involving $1,654,824.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 9.

That the Electric Boat Company of New Jersey intends to take no chances in the inquiry of Congress into the company's alleged corrupt methods in influencing submarine legislation in the House, was shown today when it developed that it had retained as counsel before the committee, such eminent lawyers as Martin W. Littleton, chief counsel in the Thaw case, and John D. Lindsay, of New York. The committee convened its first public session at 10:50 o'clock with its members present. At the conclusion of the reading of the report of the committee, Mr. Lilley addressed the committee, saying: "As I have been placed in the attitude of prosecuting officer of this investigation I should have the right to have witnesses summoned in the order I desire. Also, as most of this testimony will come from unwilling witnesses, I desire to employ legal counsel skilled in cross-examination. Also another request. I wish to call the attention of the committee to the fact that I am being shadowed and followed by detectives. Not wishing to be subjected to such a thing I ask that action be taken to prevent it. In order to take such action, I ask you to summoned three men." Here he mentioned three employes of a detective agency. Boutell said both requests would receive consideration by the committee in executive session. Lilly, continuing said: "My charges are contained in my resolution. I do not propose to constitute myself as a grand jury and submit written charges and have myself held down to that. But I will have witnesses called, and with help of counsel will examine them to bring out the facts." Boutell wanted Lilley to proceed today, but the Connecticut Congressman said that he would not be ready to examine witnesses till Thursday. "If I should testify now," he declared, "it might prevent some of the facts coming out." The rumor was current today on good authority that should Lilley fail to make good all his charges, a resolution will be introduced in the House demanding his expulsion. This would be put on the ground that he had attacked the integrity of the membership of the House without justification. It will mean either disgrace for one or more members of the House, or expulsion for Lilley. Following are the persons whom Mr. Lilley desires to have subpoenaed as witnesses: S. P. House, Morgan Bradford and Alfred B. Wells, of the Bradford Detective Agency, Washington; Isaac L. Rice, president; Elihu B. Frost, vice president; Morris Bennett, treasurer; August Treadwell, jr., assistant treasurer, and Morgan H. Johnson, of 11 Pine street, New York, attorney—all officers of the Electric Boat Company; Marion Butler, C. E. Creecy, E. W. Creecy, F. P. B. Sands, W. R. Kerr, Mr. Edenboro and W. B. Gordon. Mr. Boutell announced that, as Mr. Lilley would not be ready to proceed until Thursday, the committee would adjourn until that day at 10 a. m.

Resolutions were adopted by the committee when in executive session this afternoon, the gist of which is to refuse a point blank some of the requests made by him in spite of his representations that compliance with them was essential to the success of the inquiry.

Mr. Wu Ting Fang, the new Chinese Minister who arrived in Washington from Pekin Saturday night, called on Assistant Secretary of State Bacon and later on Secretary of State Root. The call was formal for the purpose of the minister paying his respects and to take up the matter of presenting his credentials to the President, the date of which has not yet been set. Minister Wu, in answer to inquiries, stated that he had no news on the situation between China and Japan, but he did not anticipate any serious outcome of the situation.

According to a wireless dispatch received at Pensacola, Fla., from the battleship Georgia, at 8 o'clock p. m. the fleet's position was latitude 14 37 north, and longitude 102.01 west. We shall arrive at Magdalena bay on March 12, two days ahead of schedule time. The weather is fine. The speed is now 10 1-2 knots. The cruise has been successful in every way, and the ships are in perfect condition. The fleet will be ready for record practice immediately. The receipt of this dispatch, sent as it was, through the air, 1,400 miles across the mountains and deserts of Mexico and the gulf is regarded by officials of the navy department as one of the most remarkable feats in wireless telegraphy yet accomplished.

The democratic members of the committee on banking and currency put themselves on record in favor of an issue of United States mergency currency notes, in minority report on the Fowler bill filed with the House today. The bill approved is that introduced by minority leader Williams, of Mississippi.

Campaign managers suffered a sad blow from the U. S. Supreme Court today. That court decided that any one who sends a letter to an employee in a federal building, soliciting campaign contributions, violates the law as much as if the writer had made the solicitation in person in the building. This decision was announced in the case of Edward S. Thayer, of Texas, who was indicted for soliciting in the postoffice at Dallas, Texas, by sending letters to employees, of the United States, in behalf of the G. O. P. of Texas. This solicitation, it was alleged, was at the suggestion of Cecil Lyon, republican State committee. The lower court dismissed the case against Thayer but the Supreme Court of the United States ordered that decision reversed and Thayer tried.

Strained relations with Venezuela, which may result in the rupture of diplomatic intercourse between this country and President Castro's government are expected to follow the early publication of the correspondence regarding the treatment of American investors in Venezuela and the subsequent action of congress there on.

Virginia News.

An epidemic of diphtheria is prevailing in Lovettsville district of Loudoun county.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan will address a joint session of the General Assembly of Virginia on the afternoon of March 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lynch, of Round Hill, Loudoun county, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Laura Catharine Lynch, to Prof. James Herman Summers, of Chase City. Miss Lynch is a granddaughter of Capt. William B. Lynch, of Leesburg. The wedding will take place March 23 at the Round Hill Baptist Church at 8 o'clock.

DISTRIBUTE WAR FUND.

Under direction of Governor Swanson Major Sol Cutchins will shortly begin the distribution of $30,869, allowed for rations by the United States Government to Virginia Volunteers who served in the Spanish-American war. Under this distribution, each volunteer will get 75 cents per day, less one-fifth of the total amount, allowed by former Governor Montague to attorneys who prosecuted the claims before the War Department. This will leave about 60 cents per day for each soldier for the entire time of service.

DEATH OF A CONGRESSMAN.

Congressman Adolph Meyer, formerly an assistant adjutant general in the Confederate army, died at his residence in New Orleans yesterday. He was born in 1842, and graduated from the University of Virginia in 1862. From 1862 to 1865 he served in the Confederate army on the staff of Gen. John S. Williams. Since the war Congressman Meyer had been engaged in the culture of cotton and sugar. He had represented the First congressional district of Louisiana since 1891.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, Mar. 9.

SENATE.

The Senate today manifested its intention of preventing within the District of Columbia any such horror as recently occurred at Collinwood, Ohio, by unanimously adopting a resolution, offered by Mr. Culberson, directing the District committee to investigate the condition of the local schools and report what action is necessary to protect the pupils of public and private schools from harm.

"We have never before witnessed such a mixture of good and evil in any public man. Before we have finished praising him for some wise recommendation, he makes another so foolish that our praise must turn to censure." In this way, Senator Bailey of Texas, this afternoon, in the course of a speech in the Senate on currency legislation, described President Roosevelt. Mr. Bailey defended the President for the charge of having brought about the recent panic through his persistent demand for the regulation of railroads.

The Senator declared that he was no apologist for the President and said he had no patience with the adulation of him indulged in by some democrats. After calling attention to the President's course in regard to corporations, Mr. Bailey said the harm he has done in dwarfing the States, and exalting the general government cannot be measured, and, unless the tendency which he has set in motion is arrested and reversed, our splendid federal system will ultimately be destroyed. Later, he charged the President with frequently exhibiting a supreme indifference to the constitution of the United States. Mr. Bailey criticised the Aldrich financial bill, and the substitute offered by his colleague, Senator Culberson, and advocated the adoption of his own amendment providing for the issuance of treasury notes instead of national bank circulation, as an emergency measure.

HOUSE.

On motion of Mr. Ransdell, of Louisiana, the House adjourned today without transacting any business, as a tribute to General Adolph Meyer (dep. La.) who died yesterday. As the funeral will be held this afternoon in Louisiana, no committee of the House was named to attend it.

News of the Day.

A chapel is to be erected in Washington as a memorial to the late Bishop Henry Y. Satterlee.

Mr. Perry Belmont predicts that the democratic candidate for President will carry New York State.

A driver of a New York fire engine drove his horses into an iron fence on Saturday, killing them, to save the lives of children in the street.

While boating on the Appalachee Mill pond, near Geers, S. C., yesterday afternoon, a skiff carrying ten persons capsized and three young women were drowned.

"It is now generally admitted," said a member of the Castellane-Sagan family in Paris Saturday night, "that Mme. Anna Gould will eventually marry Prince Helie de Sagan."

King Alfonso's visit to Barcelona tomorrow is considered at Madrid to be foolhardy because of the recent bomb explosions and activity of the Catalonian revolutionists.

Formal announcement was made on Saturday of the unanimous decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission not to grant any extension of the enforcement of the nine-hour law.

The yacht Mayflower, which was grounded on Thimble Shoals, in lower Chesapeake Bay, early Tuesday, while en route from Washington to the Norfolk navy yard, was successfully floated Saturday evening.

The action of the Attorney General of South Carolina in attacking Judge Pritchard and advising the State board not to turn over the dispensary fund to the receivers named by him is severely condemned at the judge's home.

Pasquale Pati, an Italian banker of New York, fired seven bullets into a Black Hand man who came into his bank on Saturday and demanded money. A companion Black Hand fled when the shooting began but was captured.

While driving across the New York Central tracks at Malone, N. Y., today More Bluto and Joseph Perry were struck by a fast mail train. Bluto was probably fatally injured, his head being crushed. Perry escaped with slight injury.

That Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is face to face with the proposition to accept $25,000 from the family of her husband, and accept a divorce, or risk everything by defending such a suit is the positive declaration made today by a New York newspaper.

The Japanese and Chinese governments have not yet reached an agreement over the seizure of the Japanese steamer by the Chinese, although it is reported that China has apologized for hauling down the Japanese flag on the confiscated steamer.

Rev. Charles Alvin Smith, pastor of the Peck Memorial Chapel, Georgetown, died last night at the home of Mrs. Tennis S. Hamlin, widow of the pastor of the Church of the Covenant. He was seized with a sudden attack of acute indigestion while at supper with the family. He died in a few minutes—at 8.30 o'clock.

The Japanese Embassy at London yesterday said that China had expressed deep regret for the seizure of the Tatsu and had promised to punish the officials who captured the vessel; a dispatch from Peking said that China asked pledges from Japan regarding shipments of arms to the mainland before releasing the steamer, and that Japan had shown willingness to consider the request.

Federal Judge Pritchard, at Asheville, N. C., Saturday, decided to appoint permanent receivers for the South Carolina Dispensary Fund, and named Judge Joseph A. McCollough, C. K. Henderson and B. F. Arthur as receivers. Henderson and Arthur are members of the "winding up" committee appointed by the South Carolina legislature a year ago. It is believed that the "winding up" dispensary committee will refuse to turn over the fund to the receivers, precipitating a clash of courts.

DIED.

On March 8th, 1908, JOHN Q. A. CRUPPER, aged 80 years. Funeral from 813 King street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

At 6:35 p. m. Sunday, March 8, Mrs. ANNA SCHLICHTING, aged 45 years. Funeral from St. Mary's Church, Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. High Mass. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

The Legislature.

The sixty-day term prescribed by the constitution for the regular session of the General Assembly expired at 12 o'clock Saturday night. While the members will continue active legislative work until March 12 h, pursuant to the joint resolution extending the session, it has been agreed that no original bills, are to be considered in either house, and only those that have been favorably acted on in one branch and referred to the other for concurrence will be taken up. The calenders of both houses are still crowded, but the bill now remaining to be considered are largely of local interest.

The supposition that the appropriation bill would be finally dealt with in the night session and that the assembly, to all intents and purposes, would break up as soon as that measure was passed, caused both houses to work diligently.

Both houses passed a large number of bills, most of them of local and circumscribed effect, and defeated others. Both were operating upon a method by which a small number of objections prevented the consideration of a bill—in the Senate, three and in the House, ten. The result was that many were passed by, which meant good-by to them.

Part of the morning session of the House was devoted to the presentation of tokens to the Speaker and the clerk, and to a gridiron production of decided cleverness. The Speaker was the recipient of a handsome silver loving cup which was presented, on behalf of the members, by the delegate from Brunswick in a brief but impressive speech. The Speaker replied in a graceful and finished speech complimenting the body upon its faithful and patriotic work, and generously according to the minority their full share of the praise.

Delegate Stubbs, in happy vein, presented the gift of the body, an elegant berry bowl to the clerk of the House, Mr. Jos. Williams, for his long and excellent service, and that gentleman responded feelingly.

Mr. Withers said he represented the "Gridiron Club," and for a half hour before adjournment highly entertained the House with a succession of political grinds and humorous contributions of a high order.

At the night session of the Senate, after passing some bills designed to strengthen the hands of the State Corporation Commission, the conference report on the appropriation bill was brought up and discussed in dead earnest. It soon became apparent that a large number, perhaps a majority, of the Senate were against the report.

Things were looking exceedingly squally for the report when the chairman of the finance committee, arose to reply to the objectors. He was proceeding pacifically enough when a hubbub was heard in the lobby, and it became evident that the members of the House, who had wound up their session in a romp, were moving upon the Senate in a calathumpian spirit, singing songs, etc. Thereupon the Senate adjourned, while it could do so with dignity, and retired in good order.

This left the appropriation bill in the air and will force the presence in Richmond this week of many legislators who would not otherwise have returned until the [illegible]th, when the charges against Judge W. G. Blackstone, of the Eleventh judicial circuit, will be heard.

SENATE.

The Senate passed the House bill for the erection of a monument at Gettysburg to the Virginians who perished on that field.

Senator Hobbs' bill to prevent the use of all other than safety matches in the State of Virginia, and providing penalties for violation of the law, was defeated.

The Senate passed bills

Appropriating money for a Confederate cemetery at Johnson's Island, Ohio.

Providing time for holding circuit courts.

To establish live stock quarantine.

Providing penalties for corporations for failure to pay registration fees.

At night, while the conference report on the appropriation bill was under discussion, the members of the House, which had adjourned, invaded the chamber and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House, by a close vote, killed the oyster bill, which, to some extent, provided for the breaking of the Bayler survey. It has passed the Senate by an almost unanimous vote.

The House passed bill No. 343, to amend section 4025 of the code with reference to the board of jurors, when they are kept together, etc. The measure allows them $1.25 instead of $1 a day, as at present.

Senate bill No. 354, adding another chapter to the act concerning the Bureau of Insurance, which was lost on Friday afternoon, was again called up on a motion to reconsider, and was discussed by Messrs. Caton, Byrd, Pulliam, Wingo, Martin, Williams and others. The main question involved seemed to be whether appeal from the Commissioner of Insurance should be to the Corporation Commission, as the bill provides, or to a Circuit Court. The amendment was favored by the members from the southwest, who objected to the expense of coming to Richmond to take an appeal, but it was lost. An amendment making the fee on insurance agents 50 cents, instead of $1, was also lost, and the bill was then passed—ayes, 61; noes, 9.

Major Green called up his bill, defining as a lawful fence one four feet high. The bill was passed.

A bill authorizing cities to establish an executive commission, and defining its powers and duties, was passed. The bill gives cities the authority to establish a board of control, and to delegate to it certain duties of the City Council.

The bill to provide for the preservation of forests, and for proper instruction in forestry in the public schools and educational institutions of the Commonwealth was passed.

Mr. Caton called up his rolling stock tax bill and its provisions were discussed at length. By a large vote the motion was passed by and the bill is hopelessly snowed under for this session.

Mr. Love made a fruitless attempt to secure reconsideration of the bill providing for popular election of State Corporation Commissioners. The bill will not be considered again this session.

Mr. Churchman called up his bill to prohibit the publication of obscene and filthy matter, and providing a penalty therefore, but it was lost.

Bills were passed to break the Baylor survey and to rearrange the lands within it into three divisions, in order to replenish the barren bottoms of former oyster shoals.

The Senate resolution permitting the removal of the Confederate flags now in the lobby of the State Capitol to the Confederate Museum, known as the "White House of the Confederacy."

Concerning warehouse receipts.

Uniform sales law.

To regulate the practice of pharmacy.

To establish an epileptic colony.

To encourage the use of wide tires on public roads by a bonus system.

To prohibit the granting of charters to banks having a minimum capital stock of less than $10,000 was passed.

House bill No. 299, to regulate the practice of pharmacy and the composition, branding, possession, dispensing and sale of drugs, poisons and narcotics, and to repeal existing statutes, was taken up on request of Mr. Sydnor, of Amelia, and favored by Mr. Stubbs and Mr. Throckmorton.

House bill No. 278, regulating the sale of goods, an act to establish a law uniform with the laws of the other States on that subject.

To prevent depredations on property in the hands of railroads and other common carriers for delivery.

Legislation was abandoned, and all gave themselves up to the celebration of the occasion. Flanked by weighty Senators, the youthful veterans of the House proceeded to the Executive Mansion, where "What's the matter with Claude? He's all right," was given in tones to awake the neighborhood. Both Houses met as usual today to consider the appropriation bill and other matters of importance, working under a rule which will prevent the consideration of any measure that has not already been passed by the other house.

Talk of final adjournment on Tuesday is general, and it does not seem probable that the assembly will continue more than a formal session until Thursday.

Today's Telegraphic News.

War Cloud in the East.

London, Mar. 9.—News of armed aggression by the Mikado against China is almost hourly expected.

China has as yet failed to respond, except by a further counter proposal to Japan's demand for the surrender of the Tatsu Maru, the Japanese ship seized by the Chinese government on the ground that it was smuggling to rebels.

The Japanese ultimatum delivered last week did not specify how long Tokio would wait for compliance. Unless China yields, however, it is the impression in government circles here that the next step will be forcible recovery of the Tatsu by the Japanese navy and immediate action to enforce the payment of indemnity.

British officialdom inclines to the opinion that further delay is not to be looked for except when it is necessary to make the necessary naval preparations.

China has apologized indeed for hauling down the Japanese flag on the Tatsu Otherwise there has been no action toward complying with Japan's demands.

China has submitted three proposals: Settlement of the controversy by a mixed court of Japanese and Chinese members.

Surrender of the Tatsu, but retention of its cargo of war munitions pending arbitration of the dispute.

Recall by the Japanese of the ship, its cargo and permit for shipment together with pledges from Tokio to suppress the traffic between Japanese houses and Chinese rebels.

Japan has refused the first and second of these offers, insisting on the immediate surrender of the ship and its cargo, an apology for the seizure, punishment of the responsible Chinese officials and indemnity. The last proposition has been ignored, a Japanese ultimatum having preceded it, with an intimation that no further counter-suggestions and no longer delay would be tolerated.

One Japanese cruiser is already at Canton, where the Tatsu is held, the Japanese southern squadron is on its way to the same port and the naval base at Sasebo, whence the armored cruiser Chiyoda sailed Saturday night for an unknown destination, is unprecedentedly active. The departure of a part of the first squadron—for what port is unannounced—has been ordered March 14. Torpedo boat destroyers are coaling as rapidly as possible and big supplies of munitions and other supplies are being hurried aboardship.

Messages from Tokio say Premier Saionji and Foreign Minister Hayashi will probably wait until March 10 or 11 for a reply to the Japanese ultimatum.

Refused to Submit Letter.

London, Mar. 9.—The chancellor of the exchequer refused, for the government, today to submit the kaiser's letter to first lord of the admiralty, Lord Tweedmouth, to Parliament. "I have nothing to add to my previous statement," he said, "except that Lord Tweedmouth showed the letter as soon as he received it to his colleague, Lord Grey, and that they agreed in regarding it as unofficial in its character and a matter to be treated as private. It is clearly out of the question to make personal correspondence public." The peers seemed satisfied with the chancellor's statement.

Banking House Stormed.

New York, Mar. 9.—Hundreds of men and women stormed the closed doors of the banking house of Mirrell, Speismon & Sternberg, in the center of the Williamsburg Ghetto, today, when a notice of temporary suspension was posted. Most of the depositors are small tradesmen and workingmen. They were thrown into frenzy by the fear of losing their savings, and police reserves were summoned before order was restored.

LETTER TO J FRED BIRRELL

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: You are to paint Mr. ——'s house for $—— we won't tell your private affairs—no matter what figure, it's a fair price.

What paint'll you use?

We're thinking of one, all paint and as strong as a paint can be; it'll take about 35 gallons, $75 for paint and painting.

Another, half paint; it'll take about 30 gallons of that, $150 for paint and painting.

The least-gallons paint, of course, will wear a long time; the other is good while it lasts. Least gallons, least cost best job.

It isn't every trade that lets a man do a cheap job and make money and friends like that.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & Co.

Georgetown, D. C., Mar. 9.—Wheat 90-97,

Stoessel's Sentence Commuted.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 9.—The Czar has commuted the sentence of death imposed against General Stoessel for surrendering Port Arthur to ten years imprisonment in a fortress, and it is expected a full pardon will shortly follow. The impression is that Nicholas would have set the Port Arthur defender free at once, but for the opposition of his war office, which hated Stoessel for his strictures concerning the unpreparedness of the fortress at the outbreak of the war with Japan. The military court which tried the general decided that he yielded to General Nogi before his resources had been completely exhausted. The Japanese themselves expressed much sympathy for the man who held out so long against them, and declared he did everything possible. Stoessel has never enjoyed good health since the hardships of the siege.

Attacked by Bedouins.

Suakin, Egyptian Soudan, Mar. 9.—Attacked by Bedouins, a caravan carrying priceless Mahometan relics to Mecca for the annual praying festival, has been forced to retreat to Medina with the loss of ten soldiers killed and several wounded. The relics included the historic holy carpet known as the Mahamal, from Mahomet's tomb at Medina, and valuable brocade hangings sent by the Sultan of Turkey to decorate the chief shrine, or Kaaba, supposedly built by Abraham, at Mecca. The attack occurred just outside Medina.

It is understood the relics were saved after a desperate fight.

Flood at Battle Creek.

Battle Creek, Mich., Mar. 9.—With two square miles inundated, this city today faces a crisis. The Kalamazoo river has done all the damage thus far, but today the Battle Creek river is rising rapidly with the prospect that the business section that has so far escaped will be submerged. Hundreds of houses are surrounded and in many of them the water is running through the second story windows. Stores were opened last night to give shelter to the homeless ones.

Kodol is today the best known remedy for all disorders of the stomach, such as dyspepsia, heartburn, sour stomach and belching of gas. Sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Electrocution.

Ossining, N. Y., Mar. 9.—Antono Strollo was electrocuted in the Sing Sing death house at 6.30 a. m. today for the murder of Antonio Torsello, near Van Cortlandt Park, August 17, 1906. He was accused of luring his victim to a lonely spot to rob him. The condemned man maintained his innocence and appealed for clemency to Governor Hughes, who declined last Saturday to interfere with the execution.

Do not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is more danger of pneumonia Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear husband, CHARLES GOEBEL, who died three years ago today.

Dearest husband thou hast left me
And your loss I most deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft me,
He can all my sorrows heal.
Yet again I hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
When in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

By his loving wife,
VIRGINIA GOEBEL.

ATTACKED BY A NEGRO.

Henry Brown, colored, was arrested in Martinsburg, W. Va., Friday night on information furnished by the officials of Page county, Va., for an alleged attempt to criminally assault Mrs. William Shiffer, a young white woman, residing two miles from Shenandoah City. The attempted assault occurred on February 28 at the home of a colored woman, about a half-mile from the residence of Mrs. Shiffer. The latter had gone to the home of the colored woman to purchase some sauerkraut, and Brown followed and attacked her while the colored woman was in the cellar. The colored woman, attracted by the screams of Mrs. Shiffer, hastened to her assistance and the two women succeeded in beating Brown off. Brown fled, pursued by a posse of infuriated farmers. He worked in the stone quarries at Bakerton, Jefferson county, until Thursday, when he went to Martinsburg.

The sheriff of Page county, Va., arrived at Martinsburg Saturday and took Brown back to the scene of his crime. Page county officials say that Brown served a term of four years in the Virginia penitentiary for a similar offense, and that the assault upon Mrs. Shiffer was the second he had committed upon white women since his release from the penitentiary.

RICHMOND REPUBLICANS.

Marked by fierce and bitter clashes between white leaders, stentorian protests from the negro contingent against being thrown overboard, and a scathing arraignment of the democratic administration by State Senator John C. Noel, for the placing of Judge William F. Rhea on the Corporation Commission, the republican mass-meeting in Richmond, on last Saturday night declared for Taft for President and Luce for Congress, and elected delegates for the district and State conventions. A new city committee was chosen. State Chairman C. Bascom Slemp was indorsed, and the republicans in the legislature were commended for protesting against the Rhea appointment.

The meeting was by all odds the stormiest and most turbulent of its character held in Richmond in a dozen years.

The negroes were told to shut up or they would be put out.

Not a single negro was placed on either the district or the State delegation, and only one was allowed to speak.

The programme had been made out beforehand.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mr. John Q. A. Crupper, an old and well-known resident, died last night. The deceased was 80 years old. He was born in Paris, Fauquier county, and came to Alexandria in 1847, where he had since resided. Mr. Crupper was one of the oldest employees of the Southern Railway, and during the past half a century he had filled the positions of conductor, engineer and yardmaster. Of late years he had been the flagman at Cameron and Henry streets. Mr. Crupper was a son of the late Robert Crupper, who in by-gone years was a prominent merchant of this city. He is survived by a widow and one son, Mr. Joseph L. Crupper.

Mrs. Annie S. Schlichting, wife of Mr. Henry Schlichting, died last night at her home, 128 south Fairfax street, after a protracted illness. The deceased was 45 years of age, and besides her husband she is survived by seven children—one son and six daughters.

Mrs. Evira Fletcher, widow of John J. Fletcher, died at her home, 120 north St. Asaph street, last night. The deceased removed to this city from Culpeper several years ago. Her remains will be forwarded to that place for interment.

Mrs. Sallie L. Burton died at Roanoke on Saturday, aged 48 years. She was a sister of Miss Alice Craddock, of this city.

Percy Breen, thirteen years of age, only child of Mr. Joseph and Mrs. Maggie Breen, died yesterday morning at his parents' residence, 302 Queen street. The deceased had during the past few days been a sufferer from cerebro-spinal meningitis. The parents have the sincere sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances in their affliction.

The funeral of Garbott Pulman, who died Thursday at George Washington University Hospital, Washington, took place from the residence, 403 south Washington street, yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, officiated. The interment was in Sharon cemetery, Fairfax county.

CAR DERAILED.

The trailer of an electric train of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway jumped the track at Twelfth and C streets northwest, Washington, about 3:20 yesterday afternoon. One passenger, W. H. Hantzman, was slightly injured, and several others were cut by flying glass.

After leaving the track, the car ran a distance of fifty feet before it came in contract with the curbing, which stopped it. The lamp post at the intersection of Twelfth and C streets was snapped off at the pavement, and had it not been for the curbing it is likely that the car would have crashed into a building on the corner. The front wheels and fully two-thirds of the body of the car passed over the curbing.

Passengers on the car became panic-stricken and some climbed upon seats and through windows in an effort to escape. Several women and children were injured during the stampede.

The tracks at Twelfth and C streets are sunk into the street, and it is thought that this caused the accident. When the train reached the curve at Twelfth and C streets the motorman attempted to slacken its speed, and in doing so, it is thought, snapped the coupling, which carried the rear car. The front car proceeded on the track, but the rear coach left the rails and crashed into the curbing.

THE REVIVAL MEETING.

The revival services which have been in progress for two weeks in Washington Street Methodist Episcopal Church South closed last night. Rev. D. Vance Price, of North Carolina, who assisted Rev. Mr. Bulla during the series, preached with great acceptability. He is a man of amiable spirit and fine intellectual force. Thirty-five persons made profession of faith in Christ during the meeting. Mr. Bulla announced yesterday that he would receive into the church next Sunday all candidates for membership. Mr. Price left for his home this morning.

GAMES.

The Washington polo team defeated the Alexandria team, by a score 3 to 1, in a very spirited contest in this city on Saturday night at the Armory Hall.

In a fast game the Alexandria Athletic Club basketball team Saturday night defeated the team representing Troop F, Fort Myer, by a score of 24 to 9. The game took place at Schuler's Hall, and was witnessed by a large number of spectators. Announcement is made that the local team will, Saturday night next, play a game with Govan's Young Men's Christian Association at the same hall.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Helligat Persson and Suiri Sinson, two sailors from the bark Asia, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

William and Odie Hunter, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $10 each.

A white man, charged with assault, was dismissed, the complainant failing to appear.

ACCIDENT TO FURNACE.

The alarm of fire shortly before twelve o'clock Saturday night was caused by an accident to a furnace at the Belle Pre Bottle Works. A break occurred in the bottom of the furnace, causing the molten mass to run out. The woodwork around the furnace was consumed, but the fire was so confined by the fire department that no damage resulted to the building.

Mr. John Riha, of Vining, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Sixty delegates, representing Alexandria city and the counties comprising the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia to select two delegates and two alternates to the State republican convention which will meet at Lynchburg April 9, and two delegates and two alternates to the Chicago convention, assembled in Sarepta Hall this afternoon.

H. P. Dodge, of Manassas, district chairman, called the convention to order, with J. W. Grigg, of Leesburg, as secretary.

After the roll call, which showed nearly every delegate present, the chairman announced that some counties had sent double delegations and each of such delegates would be entitled to half a vote.

Nominations were then made for permanent chairman of the convention and the names of W. H. Eggborn, of Culpeper; Dr. F. M. Brookes, of Fairfax, and B. A. Henson, of Louisa, were placed in nomination. The last-named declined to allow his name to go before the convention, and the balloting had just started when, by unanimous consent, the name of Dr. Brookes was withdrawn and Mr. Eggborn was chosen unanimously.

In taking the chair Mr. Eggborn said the republican party has nothing to be ashamed of and much to be proud of, and stands today ready to carry out the principles laid down by Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt. He paid a high tribute to State Chairman C. Bascom Slemp, scored the legislature for taking one county from the Fifth district and adding to the Ninth district in order to save the latter district from the republican column and praised the 27 democratic members of the Legislature who refused to vote for the confirmation of Judge Rhea. Mr. Eggborn said this was significant, and means that it is only a question of time before Virginia will be debatable ground.

The chair announced that there were no contesting delegations, and the only committee necessary was one on resolutions. The following members of this committee were named by the various delegations: Alexandria city, J. A. Eggborn; Alexandria county, C. J. Sims; Culpeper, Jackson Eggborn; Fauquier, E. L. Child; Fairfax, E. S. L. Bouton; King George, G. Beckwith; Louisa, W. H. Silcott; Orange, M. W. Carter; Prince William, H. P. Dodge; Stafford, M. K. Lowery.

This committee elected Mr. Dodge chairman and after a brief conference reported the following resolutions which were adopted as a whole:

We, the republicans of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, assembled in the city of Alexandria, March 9, 1908, do resolve:

First. That we desire to express our sorrow at the death of Hon. Campbell Slemp, whom we all learned to love and admire, who her his sword was drawn in war or in time of peace, fighting for the principles of the party with whom he cast his lot, believing that the fostering of these principles was for the interest of his people and country.

Second. That while we deplore his loss, we compliment the people of the Ninth District on their good judgment in nominating and electing Hon. C. B. Slemp, as his successor in Congress, by unprecedented majority.

Third. We take pleasure in a hearty indorsement of Hon. C. B. Slemp as our State Chairman, and the manner in which he has managed party affairs, and pledge to him our future aid and support.

Fourth. We desire to express renewed confidence in the principles of the republican party and its doctrines, as enunciated and championed by our matchless leader, Theodore Roosevelt.

Fifth. We hereby express our desire and wish that the delegates selected by this convention to represent the Eighth Congressional District in the National Convention to be held at Chicago, vote with the majority of the Virginia delegation for a man whom they believe will carry out, as far as possible, the policies of the President, believing that these policies are for the best interest of the country, and are indorsed by a large majority of the American people.

Sixth. We endorse Hon. H. Martin as member of the National committee.

Also we endorse Hon. C. B. Slemp as State Chairman.

Mr. J. B. Grayson, of Fauquier, then offered the following resolution:

It is with profound sorrow that we have just learned of the sudden death of Mr. Crupper, father of Joseph L. Crupper. We desire to express our deep sympathy for Mr. Crupper in this hour of his bereavement and request that a copy of this resolution be sent to his family.

The result of the vote for delegates to the Chicago convention was as follows: Joseph L. Crupper, of Alexandria, 55; Samuel Diener, of Culpeper, 34; J. W. B. Shumate, of Fauquier, 17, and R. R. Farr, of Fairfax, 10.

The two first-named were declared the delegates and W. H. Silcott, of Loudoun, and A. B. Casselman, of Alexandria county, were unanimously elected alternates.

Judge Shumate, of Fauquier, was unanimously elected elector for the district; H. P. Dodge was re-elected district chairman; and for member of the State executive committee Wm. B. King, the incumbent, received 51 votes, and Jos. L. Crupper, 10—that number of delegates insisting upon voting for Mr. Crupper in spite of the fact that it was positively announced that he was not a candidate for the position.

Five members of the State republican committee were elected as follows: Edward Walton, of Fairfax; B. A. Henson, of Louisa; E. L. Childs, of Fauquier; William Brown, of Loudoun; O. D. Gray, of Alexandria county.

A motion to postpone the selection of a candidate for Congress until not later than the last Monday in August was carried.

The convention then adjourned.

Several delegates present were prepared to vote for Mr. J. L. Crupper if a nomination for Congress had been made.

THE CHURCHES.

Yesterday was a bright and mild day and the services at the several churches were attended by fairly large congregations. Rev. D. Vance Price, of North Carolina, who for the past two weeks has been conducting revivals at the Methodist Episcopal Church South, concluded the services at night. Rev. J. M. Sheridan, D. D., president of the M. P. conference, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist Protestant Church. At Christ Church at night Rev. G. W. H. Troop, assistant rector of St. John's Church, Georgetown, preached an interesting sermon.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The services at St. Paul's Church tomorrow night will be under the auspices of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Rev. W. H. Burkhardt, rector of St. James Church, Leesburg, will preach. The music will be by a boys' choir led by Miss Katie Smoot and Miss Janie Ballenger. The offertory will be sung by Mrs. Sherman Fowler.

Money can be saved by buying your Shoes at Marshall's, 422 King street.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

The ladies who have for the last five years managed the affairs of this most worthy organization will tomorrow night ask the City Council to make an additional appropriation of two hundred and fifty dollars for "Corporation Branch" of the Co-operative Charities. This branch is a special committee which expends the city appropriations and was created at the insance or encouragement of the late George L. Simpson, when Mayor. Prior to 1903 groceries, wood &c were given out by the overseer of poor, and in July 1903 Mr. Simpson in a message calling attention to the unsatisfactory condition as well as extravagant manner of distributing the city appropriation, among other comments, said: "Under existing system of municipal distribution there are many and varied concomitants, and the system itself instead of being an aid to the deserving poor, is oftentimes an incentive to reprehensible laziness. The eleemosynary adjuncts to the churches in our city obtain results incomparably superior to those obtained through municipal management, and we should either select the methods of these societies as examples, or we should originate ideas of our own for greater protection of the genuinely needy." The suggestions of this message were carried into effect, and Council has each year made appropriations, and in addition to a large saving in money, a matter of greater importance is the systematic work of the ladies. Their first report said: "The constant endeavor has been to afford assistance to the worthy only. Each case has been carefully investigated, and in most cases the applicants have been visited. Where applicants were able they were required to appear in person and receive the assistance provided. This arrangement enabled the committee to see and know upon whom the city was bestowing its charity." This work has not been of a character to make anyone envious of the ladies who have given so much of their time to it. Their only compensation is that in a way they helped to lighten the burdens of those less fortunate than themselves. That all has been well done finds its proof from the public records. We quote, in comparison, expenditures under the old system and the new for ten years. There was expended for groceries and wood years ending May 31st, 1899—1903, old system $10,385 74. Council has appropriated years 1904—1908, for associated charities $5,550. These figures speak for themselves. Last year the City Council appropriated $1,250 this year the association has had only $1,000.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. R. Caton has returned from Richmond, where the legislature has almost completed its work. He says if the conference report on the appropriation bill is not agreed to by tomorrow the matter will probably go over till the members reassemble on the 23d instant to act in the Judge Blackstone matter.

Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, conducted the services and preached at St. John's Church, in Georgetown, last night, exchanging pulpits with Rev. G. W. H. Troop, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ticer have returned from their wedding trip, after visiting the mid-winter exposition at Jacksonville, Fla., St. Augustine, Fla., and other southern cities, and are now at home at 418 south Fairfax street.

Mrs. Edgar Carpenter is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Upshur Nottingham, at Estville, Va.

The engagement is announced of Miss Julia Muschette, of West River, Md., and Mr. Joseph Harris Franklin, formerly of Alexandria, but now of Washington.

Mr and Mrs. E. Goldsmith will be at home on Sunday, March 15, from 8 to 10 o'clock, in honor of the engagement of their daughter, Myrle, to Mr. Milton Kronheim, of Washington.

Mr. George A. Paff, superintendent of the American Wire and Nail Works at Sharon, Pa., is visiting his brother, Mayor Paff, in this city.

GRAND JURY.

The grand jury of the Corporation Court consisting of Messrs. W. B. Smoot, John B. Padgett. D. H. Appich, George D. Hopkins, Henry Strauss, S. L. Monroe, Charles P. Waller and T. C. Howard—met this morning. In his charge Judge Barley, among other things, called attention to the urgent need of the immediate inspection of all buildings in this city used for public gatherings. The judge suggested that all doors to such places should be hung so as to open outward. He also said that the jury could have the services of the City Engineer in the work of inspection. Judge Barley called special attention to buildings in which moving picture shows are conducted. He said that he personally knew nothing about such places, and could not say whether the proprietors had taken proper precautions to insure safety in case of fire. The authorities, however, should see that they had. The jury was instructed to report not later than Wednesday.

The grand jury returned indictments against Frank Parker, Walter Smith, Fred Hicks and Edward Drowns for grand larceny; Walter Smith, Edward Drowns and Fred Hicks for breaking and entering a slaughter house; C. H. Chauncey for misdemeanor; Edward Drowns, Fred Hicks and Wilbert Cook for felonious and malicious shooting; Geo. Payne and John Lewis for breaking and entering a storehouse.

The grand jury was then adjourned till tomorrow evening at 3 o'clock and several witnesses have been summoned for that time.

Van H. Manning jr., qualified as administrator of the estate of his father, the late Van H. Manning, sr.

Court adjourned till tomorrow.

COMMITTEE MEETING.

The Eighth district democratic congressional committee met this evening at Manassas to fix a date for a democratic primary to elect a candidate for Congress. At 3:45 o'clock the date had not been decided upon but it is generally believed that June 9 h will be the day fixed.

Trials of Writers.

George Eliot in one of her letters, referring to her novel "Daniel Deronda," writes as follows: "My book seems to me so unlikely ever to be finished in a way that will make it worth while giving to the world that it is a kind of glass in which I behold my infirmities." Again of the same work, "As usual, I am suffering much from doubt as to the worth of what I am doing and fear lest I may not be able to complete it so as to make it a contribution to literature and not a mere addition to the heap of books."

Montesquieu wrote thus to a friend: "I thought I should have killed myself these three months to finish a morceau (for his great work) which I wished to insert on the origin and revolutions of the civil laws of France. You will read it in three hours, but I do assure you that it cost me so much labor that it has whitened my hair."

The eminent modern French writer Gustave Flaubert suffered tortures in his efforts to attain perfection. When composing, he would sometimes spring to his feet, shriek aloud and call himself "blockhead," "idiot." No sooner was one doubt removed than another arose. At other times he would sit at his writing table as one magnetized, lost in contemplation. His friend Turgeneff declared that it was exceedingly touching to see his struggles with language. He would work a whole day and sometimes all night on a single page.

Traps of the Ant Lion.

We read of the tiger traps in India—great pits dug in the ground and covered lightly with pliant bamboo. The tiger steps upon the false top and before it can retreat is precipitated into a trap. Walking along a sandy road, look for tiny circular pits sunk below the surface and then sit down and watch an exciting episode in the life of the little still hunter which has dug the pitfall. It is invisible, and for some time the whole affair seems lifeless. Then an ant comes blundering along and without warning topples over the edge and begins to slide down the incline. But the insect fights hard for life and seems about to make its escape, when, lo, the sand grains heave upward at the bottom and with a jerk are hurled like a miniature catapult at the ant, knocking it over and rolling it to the bottom. The ant lion, for such it is, now seizes its prey and after sucking its juices casts the dry body away and mends its pit against the coming of another victim.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Scientists' Corner.

Lord Kelvin was buried in Westminster abbey in the spot which by analogy we might call scientists' corner, but it is such a very ugly phrase. If pilgrimages are made there the pilgrims will be of another type from those whose shrine is poets' corner. And yet, when one thinks of the poets, how many of them have opened up such wide spaces of imagination as Newton and Herschel, Darwin and Kelvin? If Shakespeare had known such men he would have admitted their right to take their place with the lover, the madman and the poet who are of "imagination all compact." But this conception has not penetrated the popular mind, which is hardly equal to pure imagination unadulterated with emotion and a good many primitive instincts.—London Saturday Review.

Getting His Money's Worth.

A New Hampshire man tells of a tight fisted man of affairs in a town of that state who until recently had never been observed to take an interest in church matters. Suddenly, however, he became a regular attendant at divine service, greatly to the astonishment of his fellow townsmen.

"What do you think of the case of old Ketchum?" said one of the business men of the place to a friend. "Is it true that he has got religion?"

"Well, hardly," replied the other. "The fact is it's entirely a matter of business with him. I am in a position to know that about a year ago he loaned the pastor $50, which the latter was unable to pay. So there remained nothing for Ketchum but to take it out in pew rent."

Struck Out.

Dr. C., who always employs two servants, man and wife, was talking to a patient one day about a couple he had just discharged because the man drank.

He remarked: "It is so strange, but it is always the way with a man and wife. If one is good, the other is no good."

The patient asked him, "How is it with you and Mrs. C.?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Home Life of Genius.

The Actor (before breakfast)—Where are the papers, my dear? His Wife (an actress, absentmindedly)—C-curse you! They are far beyond your reach, thank heaven! And I'll die a thousand deaths before you can wr-r-r-r-ring the secret from—oh—er—Jack, I mean, the boy forgot to leave them this morning! —Puck.

A Reason.

"Pa," asked Mr. Henpeck's little boy, "why did Patrick Henry say, 'Give me liberty or give me death?'"

"He may have been out five minutes after the curfew rang the night before."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Highest Applause.

You would compliment a coxcomb doing a good act, but you would not praise an angel. The silence that accepts merit as the most natural thing in the world is the highest applause.—Emerson.

Experience is the extract of suffering.—A. Helps.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, small, safe, sure little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

The End Came Another Way.

A distinguished actor was one time engaged at one of our leading provincial theaters in a drama in which he attempts an escape from a convict prison, first by getting rid of his fetters by means of a file and lastly by getting over the prison wall. In the act of doing this he is shot at by a warder and killed.

One particular night the drama had run its usual course up to the point where the actor attempts the escape over the prison wall. The warder, as usual, presented his rifle, but instead of a loud report nothing but a faint clicking sound was heard. The rifle was lowered and after a brief delay again pointed, but with the same disappointing result.

The audience now began to hiss and jeer. The disgusted actor then got off the prison wall and, staggering toward the footlights, exclaimed, "It's all up—I've swallowed the file!" and fell prone on the stage amid the laughter and applause of the audience.—Pearson's Weekly.

Bachelor Seal Skin.

"This skin," said the furrier, "came from a young seal bachelor, a youth ignorant of love and of life."

"How do you know?" the lady asked.

"By its fineness, its perfection," he replied. "The pile, you will note, is like close cut velvet. Only bachelor seal skins have such a pile.

"The bachelor seal," he went on, "has a rather sad life. The big bull seals in the seal islands have each a household of fifteen or twenty wives, but the young bachelors must herd by themselves. Let one of them attempt to marry and straightway a bull slays him. Not till he is big enough to fight and conquer a bull—nor till he is fourteen or fifteen years old—can he know the delight of settling down in a home of his own.

"He leads a hard, ascetic, celibate life, only in the end as like as not to make a lady a very fine coat. All the very fine coats, I repeat, are made from the unhappy bachelor seals."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Jack Tar and the Actor.

A famous Irish actor of the eighteenth century named John Moody early in life, before he went on the stage, had been to Jamaica and worked his passage home as a sailor before the mast. One night some time after he had been engaged at Drury Lane when he was acting Stephano in "The Tempest" a sailor in the front row of the pit got up and, standing upon the seat, hallooed out, "What cheer, Jack Moody—what cheer, messmate?"

This unexpected address rather astonished the audience. Moody, however, stepped forward and, recognizing the man, called out: "Tom Hullett, keep your jawking tacks aboard. Don't disturb the crew and passengers. When the show is over make sail for the stage door, and we'll finish the evening over a jug of punch. But till then, Tom, keep your locker shut." Moody, it is related, was as good as his word.—Cornhill Magazine.

Exchanging Amenities.

A blatant sample of the loud voiced, self conscious, look-at-me variety of man took his seat in a bus and called to the conductor:

"Does this bus go all the way?"

"Yes, sir," responded the conductor politely.

"Does it go as far as Oxford street? I want to get out there."

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Well, I want you to tell me when we get there. You'd better stick a stamp on your nose or put a straw in your mouth or tie a knot in one of your lips, so that you won't forget it."

"It would not be convenient for one in my position to do so," said the conductor courteously, "but if you will kindly pin your ears round your neck I think I shall remember to tell you."—London Scraps.

The Sins of Hatters.

If any tradesman has a lot to answer for it is surely the hatter. He will most unblushingly tell you that a certain type of hat is suited to your particular style of beauty, knowing that the information is false, and all the while you have a dull suspicion that you don't look well in it. Yet you are obliged to believe him. His persuasive powers are so cultivated that I firmly believe he would make a dwarf think himself "a fine figure of a man."—Fry's Magazine.

May Do It Now.

"In the olden times it is said that it was possible for a man to render himself invisible."

"Pshaw! That's not at all remarkable. Men in this country are doing it every day."

"You don't say so! How do they manage it?"

"By marrying famous women!"

How It Was Becoming.

"That dress is becoming, my dear," said the man who thinks he is a diplomat.

She looked at him coldly for a moment and then replied:

"Yes. It is becoming threadbare."

Brutally Frank.

Scribbles—When I take a dislike to a man I use him as the villainous character in one of my novels. Criticus—Ah, I see! You punish the poor fellow by burying him alive, as it were.

Why They Fly.

Bobby—Mamma, do the streets of heaven flow with milk and honey? Mamma—So the Bible says, dear. Bobby—And is that why the angels have wings, 'cause the walkin's so bad?

Obedience is better than sacrifice.—Shakespeare.

Why He Concealed His Calling.

"I hope," said the young man, "that partial concealment of the truth is no lie. If it is, I am telling a whopper right now, and I'm a divinity student too. That is what I am lying about. I don't tell that I am studying theology. If I did I wouldn't find it so easy to hold this job. I'm one of the down-on-his-luck students who has to work his way through college. One of the first things I learned when I began to look for a position was that the average employer of labor has no use for the divinity student. Somehow every man engaged in business holds the opinion that a young fellow who is studying for the ministry lacks backbone, and he is afraid to trust him with important duties.

"After I had ingenuously explained my circumstances to about twoscore of employers and had been turned down by all of them I got wise. I am working now. The boss doesn't know I am pegging away nights on church history. If he did the chances are he'd discharge me, not because he has any grudge against parsons or church history, but because he, like everybody else, would think I hadn't pluck enough to earn my salary."—New York Times.

Staggered Webster.

In the somewhat famous case of Mrs. Bodgen's will, which was tried in the Massachusetts supreme court many years ago, Daniel Webster appeared as counselor for the appellant. Mrs. Greenough, wife of the Rev. William Greenough of West Newton, was a very self possessed witness. Notwithstanding Mr. Webster's repeated efforts to disconcert her she pursued the even tenor of her way until Webster, becoming quite fearful of the result, arose, apparently in great agitation, and, drawing out his large snuffbox, thrust his thumb and finger to the very bottom and, carrying a deep pinch to both nostrils, drew it up with gusto, and then, extracting from his pocket a very large handkerchief, he blew his nose with a report that rang distinct and loud through the crowded hall.

He then asked, "Mrs. Greenough, was Mrs. Bodgen a neat woman?"

"I cannot give you full information as to that, sir. She had one very dirty trick," replied the witness.

"What was that, madam?"

"She took snuff."

Most Popular of Pictures.

The best known picture in the world, it has been said, is Vandyke's portrait of James II. of England as an infant, popularly known as Baby Stuart. Two million copies of it are said to be in American homes, and it is equally popular in England and continental Europe. This is not because it is a portrait of a child who became king, but because it is a masterly piece of infant portraiture. The plump, round cheeks and tiny nose, surmounted by a tight fiting cap, appeal to every lover of children. The figure with which the world is familiar is the central one in a group of the eldest three children of Charles I. painted in 1635, when the baby, afterward known as the Duke of York, was only two years old and barely able to stand alone.—Youth's Companion.

Quick climatic changes try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils, nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffling, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are ended by Ely's Cream Balm. Th's honest remedy contains no cocaine, mercury nor other harmful ingredient. The worst cases yield to treatment in short time. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

The newspapor in the home is a necessity. Get one that can be safely read by the entire family. The Tribune is a paper that prints all the news of the world in such a manner as to be readable without offending the laws of good taste. It is a human paper—one edited by men and women; and while, at times, it may occasionally make mistakes, its readers believe and trust in it. There is nothing ever printed in The Tribune that will not instruct and educate, just as it is a fact there is nothing ever printed that will offend decency.

With The Sunday Tribune you get a handsome illustrated supplement of timely topics and a superb twenty page magazine with colored cover, which contains most interesting fiction and short stories by well known authors. This, with other sections, goes to make up one of the most complete and interesting Sunday Newspapers published.

The Daily and Sunday Tribune is the ideal family newspaper. A dollar bill sent to the Circulation Department of The Tribune, New York, will bring The Daily and Sunday Tribune into your family for one month. Or send $10 for one year.
